TUCKER SCORES A DOUBLE.

WOODLANE TAKES THE GREENFIELD STAKES AND JACQUIN WINS AGAIN.

Duryea Takes Marathon from Cella for $3,000
—Whimsical Makes a Poor Showing Her
First Time Out This Year.

New York, May 1.—Whimsical had her Metropolitan trial in the handicap at one mile and a sixteenth today and made a wretched showing. The mare looked well and was a lukewarm choice, going from 7 to 5 to 3 to 1. The betting was sufficient indication that she was not highly regarded by her connections, though Matt Looman, her owner, who was at the track for the first time this season, bet $500 on her. The daughter of Orlando showed little speed at any stage. She was pinched off at the start, but the interference was not sufficient to have affected her chances had she been the Whimsical of the early part of the last season. She will have to show great improvement over her performance today to entitle her to consideration in any fast company. She can hardly be counted upon as a possible factor for the Metropolitan.

Robert Tucker's colors were in front at the end of two races today. Woodlane taking the Greenfield Stakes from a fair lot of two-year-olds, while his recent acquisition, Jacquin, won his second race in Tucker's colors when he galloped off with the selling affair at one mile and a sixteenth. Jacquin cost Tucker $1,500 ten days ago and has won two purses and two big bets for his new owner. He tried to make it three wins with Mackerel in the closing race to round out the trio of successes. Mackerel was backed from 15 to 1, to 8 to 1, but, away poorly, was never a factor. Tucker leaves tomorrow morning for Louisville. He takes some good material that is ready to race and should win his share of races at Churchill Downs. In Woodlane he has an uncommonly fast filly. Tucker will take J. Hennessy west to do the riding for the stable.

The public was in rare good form today, as five favorites won, and as the other two winners were well backed at good odds, the ring got a trouncing that will be remembered. Radtke showed something of his old-time brilliancy as a rider when he squeezed through at the head of the stretch and got Marathon up to win the fifth race. Radtke put up a strong finish and has only to repeat this performance a few times to fully restore himself to favor. Marathon, though Aunt Rose was a contender, was bid up and purchased by H. B. Duryea for $3,000. J. L. McGinnis started the bidding and carried it to $2,500, when he stopped. Mr. Duryea then bid $3,000 and got the horse. J. L. McGinnis took Youthful on one bid of $2,000 after the last race. The colt was in for $800.

Apple Today was slightly lame when going to the post for the stake race and was nodding badly after the race. The trouble was in his near fore-foot and is said to be chronic.

Roy A. Rainey has bought from Matt Byrnes the three-year-olds Glenham and Stray. R. L. Thomas, the Kentucky owner, was a visitor today, but was not fortunate enough to see his colors victorious, though Aunt Rose was a contender in the stake until the last half furlong. Captain Jim Williams was a visitor also. He brought no horses with him and will remain but a few days.

The Columbus Stakes is the principal feature of tomorrow's card, but it is probable the fifth race will attract the most attention. Ben Cole, Rifle Range, Foreman; Lord Badger, Bon Mot, Killchan; Sewell, Tanya, Rosemount; Dario, Molesey, Campaigner; Azora, Foxmead, Henry Watterson; Queen Marguerite, Bridge Whist and Alanda among the horses expected to run, excellent racing seems assured.

FLEMING IS NO LONGER A MAIDEN.

W. J. Young's Kentucky Derby Candidate Wins—Mortiboy Takes the Feature.

Lexington, Ky., May 1.—The weather conditions today were not propitious for out of doors sport. It was cool and raw, just such an afternoon that one would expect snow. The track was deep and holding in spots, trying on the best of horses. The attendance, however, was fair.

Five of the six races were won by local owners. W. J. Young taking two—the first with Fleming, his Kentucky Derby candidate, and the fourth with Billy Bowlegs, his good two-year-old.

Mose Goldblatt's Mortiboy won the feature race, a mile condition affair for three-year-olds. He made a runaway of it, winning with ease from The Abbot, which was unfortunate in that he met with repeated interference in the early stages of the running.

John Marrs duplicated his victory of the opening day, when in the second race he beat among others the speedy Skyo and Black Mary with all ease. John Marrs is a stoutly built youngster and a bold free runner. He can run over any sort of a track and is undoubtedly more than a useful colt.

T. H. Stevens scratched Hilgert from the opening race. This is a colt touted by local trainers as the best maiden in America. He worked six furlongs a few days ago in 1:13.25 and Stevens has turned down several flattering offers for him.

Jim Baker put up his apprentice, Brandt, on Gazze in the sixth race and the boy rode a good race. He held Gazze well together and the colt ran better for him than he has for some of the older and more experienced jockeys who have ridden him. This was the second mount that Brandt ever had and he looks as if he might develop into a rider of some merit.

W. H. Flizer and Jockey Andrew Minder left for Louisville tonight to give Pink Star his final work-out for the Kentucky Derby. Pink Star is said to have worked better than any colt at Churchill Downs for the big race and his people appear confident that he will run well. Minder will have the mount on Pink Star in the Derby.

There will probably be a much improved track in evidence tomorrow and with such good horses as Southern Knight, Malmesdon, Pantops, Hard Shot, Knight of Ivanhoe, Sagapanak, Monette, Honest, Zagg, Lady Bateman, Lady Arion, American Belle, John L. Inglis, Lady Savoy, Halbard, Louise Macfarlan, Dick Redd and Golden Mineral among the probable starters fast racing may be witnessed.

T. K. Lynch.

SIR TRISTAN WINS THE FEATURE.

Poor Day for Favorites at Pimlico—Gold Castle Fails a Horde of Supporters.

Baltimore, Md., May 1.—Another program of seven races was the order at Pimlico today. There were no especially brilliant features, but the interest was well sustained and the betting was lively. El Dorado, at prohibitive odds, was the only winning favorite. One of the hottest tips of the meeting was out on Gold Castle in the first race. It was said that he could hold El Dorado in his work, and when the layers marked up 5 to 1 they were swamped. Such a rush was made to back this good thing that at post time his odds were down to 7 to 5. Gold Castle got off poorly and could never catch Ida Reck, which was off flying.

Sir Tristan captured the handicap steeplechase, perhaps the feature race of the day. Mr. Gleniver's good hunter, Guardian, set the pace here and fencible faultlessly made the favorite. Rock Storm, do his best. The tussle with Guardian killed off Rock Storm, and Sir Tristan, coming fast on the flat, landed the race. El Dorado was entered in the Merchants' Handicap for tomorrow, but Mr. Smithson preferred to run today and get a little sure money, which he did in the fifth.

The Chelsea stable's The Wrestler, was strangely overlooked in the last race. He seemed to outclass the others, but as this was his first start of the season the public was shy. The Wrestler won just as his rider pleased.

J. Daly was set down for the remainder of the meeting for slashing A. Lee with his whip in the sixth race yesterday. Christian was suspended for three days for disobedience at the post. Paul Powers sold Black Mask to W. Selleck, and the filly ran in the latter's colors today. Will Shields sold quadrille to R. E. Watkins for $1,000. Paul Walden sold Cleverly Betsy to the Chelsea Stable. Al Webster sold Nellie Racine to G. W. Forman.

The usual seven races are on tomorrow's program, one being a stake race, and with such tried performers as Patricia, Easter Belle, Bergamo, Sonoma Belle, Ivanhoe, Delphie, Giles, Ornamentation, Merry Man, Lotus Eater, Greville, Racine, II., Varner, Lysistrata, Bromsday, Sally K., Allonby, King of Bush, Emma G., John Lee and in Memoriam likely to go to the post, good racing should be the order of the day.

J. H. Anderson.

JOCKEY H. SMITH STANDS SUSPENDED

Logistilla Wins in Fast Time—All Favorites Are Bowled Over.

Oakland, Cal., May 1.—Jockey H. Smith was led to the gate at Oakland this afternoon and warned to keep away from the track until further notice. The stewards announced the suspension of the rider shortly after the running of the second race, in which the heavily backed favorite, Escalante, ridden by Smith, was virtually left at the post. Starter Dwyer and his assistants laid the blame on the jockey and today's unsavory looking incident, coming right on top of yesterday's incompetent and seemingly dishonest handling of George P. McNear and Native Son, aroused the officials to immediate action.

All the favorites were beaten. C. Williams sat perfectly still on Andrew B. Cook, the odds-on public choice in the first. Escalante was left in the second. Tom Williams' crack two-year-old Walter Miller could not deliver the goods in the third. Princess Titania was palpably unequal to the task assigned her in the handicap. Eduardo ran as if waterlogged in the next and Sanfara, at even, wound up a disastrous day's sport from a betting standpoint.

Logistilla scored a brilliant victory in the feature event at a mile, running the distance in fast time, 1:29.2. Soule's mare under "Frisco" Hoag's skilful training has improved wonderfully, and there is nothing hereabouts capable of beating her.

Perfect weather and track conditions prevailed. Thirty-six layers were in line and the attendance approximated 8,000. J. W. Blalock and stable of horses leave for Toronto tomorrow. Harold Richardson leaves for New York on Saturday. E. C. Hopper has declined an offer to act as presiding judge at the coming Butte meeting and will spend the summer at his place in Kentucky.

No great things are to be expected from tomorrow's card, but the probable contestants class well together, and with Heather Scott, Kismet Jr., Jeremiah, Avona, Baby Keefe, Nancy W.; Fred Bent, Lazell, The Missourian; Dewey, King of Mist, Salable; E. M. Brattain, Pal, Paddy Lynch; Confessor, El Oros and Hugh McGowan showing in the entries, some close finishes may reasonably be anticipated.

H. Forsland.

ABOUT THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Six youngsters coming out for the first time are entered at Jamaica today—one in the first race and five in the sixth race.

Frivoler, by Ethelbert—Flirt, is aptly named and is owned by Perry Belmont, his breeder. Flirt is a daughter of Faustus and she is the dam of Mephisto. Bis, by Plaudit—Partridge, is a half-sister to that good race mare Canteen, which has four or more miles in 1:40 or better to her credit, and also to The Quail and Ptarmigan. Bis was bred by John E. Madden and was sold to F. Johnson for $1,000.

Chief Desmond, by Saint—Laura Agnes, which will carry the colors of Barney Schreiber, comes from the Woodlands Farm in Missouri and is a full brother to Otis, Ed Sheridan and Winifred, and half-brother to Santalus, Otis being a St. Louis Derby winner.

G. Ferraro, by Glenheim—Sabra, is the first foal of his dam, a full sister to the good horse Watercolor, Darien, Valdos, Water King, Water Mirror and Peppergrass. G. Ferraro was bred by J. B. Haggin in California and was knocked down as a yearling to John Mackey for $500. Sabra was never raced, but her dam, Sabrina, won the only race in which she ever started, the Winter Stakes at San Francisco.

Green Goods, by Greenan—Unadaga, cost J. A. Bennet $1,500 as a yearling. He was bred by J. B. Haggin at Elmendorf Stud. Unadaga was a good race mare and is the dam of Can Gallop, Santa Rosa II., Five Nations, Wannake, Juvenaga, Vesuvius, Royal Una and Salvo.

Sanguine, by Ornament—Alarming, belongs to R. T. Wilson Jr., and is a full brother to Pardalo, Mary Prim and Scintillant.

At Pimlico there are four youngsters that have never been entered until now. Bergamo, by Potentate—Turca, is a half-brother to Sandy Creeker and comes from the Aftongreen Stud in Virginia.

Merry Countess, by Merryday—Comtexas, is a full sister to Merry Lassie and was bred by A. D. Payne at the Annita Stud in Virginia.

Our Prindle, by His Grace—Jennie C., comes also from Virginia, being bred by F. R. Horner at Brandy Station. He is a half-brother to Judge Taragon.

Gertrude Lee, by Indio—Released, was bred by J. B. Haggin in California and was sold as a yearling for $100. Her dam is a daughter of Dorebia and is the dam of Liberty Star and Queen Florentine.

Five are entered for their first races at Lexington today. Etta A., by Boundless—Freyja, was bred by J. E. Cushing and is a half-sister to Ralph Young.

Winner—Br. g. by Victory—Mertie Reed (trained by W. M. Rogers).

Went to post at 1:45. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Lem Reed broke striding and retained a forward position in the early running, came through on the inside and made good at the end. Smith Kane established a quick lead from a slow start and held on unexpectedly gamely in the closing struggle. Andrew B. Cook outbroke the others but went wide on the last turn and finished unextended with his jockey sitting still. Pelham, shuffled back early, made up ground moderately. Interlude held a position well. Willie Gregg, away poorly, closed a gap in the last half. Masedo had scant chance at the start.

Overweights—Pelham, 2 pounds; Mint O., 3; Emir, 1.

Winner—Ch. g. by Housatonic—Orinoco (trained by E. E. Getchell).

Went to post at 2:10. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Aaron J. from a flying start won all the way but bumping everything within reach in the last furlong. Billy Mayham broke slowly and was reserved in close attendance on the winner to the stretch, where he came through in close quarters on the inside and, after being repeatedly forced to pull up, just failed to get up. Burning Bush ran in forward and game contention throughout. Bucolic, away poorly, closed up steadily from the start. Grasscutter was prominent until in the last sixteenth, where she quit. Escalante, virtually left, closed an immense gap and was much the best. La Chata had no chance at the start. Tolaw was sore.

Scratched—68329 Phalanx, 111; 67975 Creston Boy, 107.

Overweights—Aaron J., 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f. by Nimrod—Tern (trained by E. Wright).

Went to post at 2:39. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same, third easily. Turnaway is a phenomenally fast breaker, got into a long lead early and held sway to the end in a game finish. Raleigh was in nearest pursuit of the winner from the start and was wearing her down slowly at the end. Walter Miller, badly outpaced in the early running, was gaining slowly at the end. Creston, practically left at the post, loomed up on the last turn and then tired. Light showed brief early speed.

Overweights—Creston, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. m. by Locohatchee—Searg (trained by H. W. Hoag).

Went to post at 3:01. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Logistilla had a striding start but was taken back and reserved far in the rear of the exhaust. Lisaro moved up rapidly in the last half and got up right at the end of a phenomenal stretch sprint. Lisaro outbroke and outpaced the others for seven furlongs, then tired after a game effort. Princess Titania was reserved in close attendance on the leaders and loomed up midway of the stretch and finished a resolute third. Earl Rogers after strenuous early pursuit of Lisaro tired in the last quarter. Belvoir was far outclassed.

Overweights—Princess Titania, 2 pounds.

SLIEVE GALLION'S TWO THOUSAND.

Favorite for the Derby, to Be Run in England June 5, Triumphs at Newmarket.

London, May 1.—Captain Greer's black colt Slieve Gallion, by Gallinule—Reclusion, admittedly the best two-year-old of 1906 and favorite for the Derby to be run June 5, today won the Two Thousand and Guineas Stakes, for three-year-old colts and fillies, over the Rowley Mile (one mile), at Newmarket. Slieve Gallion was the heavily supported favorite at 11 to 4 and, ridden by W. Higgins, made all the running, winning by three lengths from Lord Rosebery's bay colt Bezonian, by Valasquez—Gas, which was ridden by Danny Maher. Mr. William Clark's bay colt Linacre, by Wolf's Crag—Lismaine, which finished third to Slieve Gallion in the race for the Craven Stakes at Newmarket April 18, was third. In the race today ten horses started.

Slieve Gallion had already a great following for the Derby, and it is reasonable to suppose that this race for the Two Thousand Guineas, providing of course for his good health and condition in the meanwhile, will send him to the post an overwhelming favorite at Epsom June 5. Before the race for the Craven Stakes the odds about Slieve Gallion for the Derby were 4 to 1, but immediately afterward they were cut to 2 to 1, truly a tight price, seven weeks in advance of the event, and it is reasonable to suppose that after this latest achievement the odds have been reduced a point or two.

Commenting upon Slieve Gallion's victory in the Craven Stakes, London Sporting Life says: "No race was ever won more easily, and all the way up the hill to the winning post he was drawing away from the others, although Higgins was taking matters easily. The time in which the race was run was remarkably good, for it was only 1:40; one watch made it two-fifths less. The record for the Rowley Mile is, I believe, the 1:39 made by Sceptre, but she was not only carrying less weight, but running a fortnight later in the season. All the evidence points, then, to Slieve Gallion being, as some of us have always maintained, a diamond of the first water.

"When Slieve Gallion won the Craven Stakes, the late Matthew Dawson's yearly statement of many years ago dropped up vividly once more: 'Aye, had you hear this and you hear that, how this horse has improved, and how that has improved, but what's mine been doing? Depend on it, when they come together, the best two-year-old will prove the best three-year-old.'

"Slieve Gallion certainly looks like substantiating it this year, for he has thickened and muscled up splendidly, and he ran his race in such smooth style, and won so easily, that he is evidently a good horse. That something was wrong with him last autumn is now clear, for one could not imagine a greater contrast than his performance against Galvani and that of this week. Then he rolled about with his head as high as he could get it, and galloped, as it were, in the air, whilst on Thursday he carried his head properly, behaved in sober fashion, and actually stood pushing at some part of the race. I know the general belief is that he was always pulling, but such was not the case. As he passed me at the bushes, with no more than a neck advantage of two or three others, he was being pushed along to keep in front."

THE SEASON'S RECORD "BOOST."

Until yesterday, when H. B. Duryea took Marathon from L. A. Cella for $3,000 and J. L. McGinnis got J. W. Howard's Youthful on a bid of $2,000, there had been no "boosting" of moment in the east this year. The Metropolitan Jockey Club profited $1,500 by the transactions of yesterday, Marathon having been entered at $1,200 and Youthful at $800. At Benning there was only one "boost." There has been none at Pinlicko. At Aqueduct there were three and at Jamaica the case of Savable Wednesday. Incidentally the $3,000 for Marathon is the record for a run-up this year, though the raise of $1,800 was equalled in the case of El Cazador at Ascot Park March 12, when he was entered at $700. E. Vawdland took him that day for $2,500. Ormonde's Right, entered at Ascot Park, March 4, at $1,500 was taken by H. Mason for $2,500, a raise of $1,000. Aside from McGinnis' $1,200 elevation in the case of Youthful, there have been no other raises of $1,000 or more this season.

W. H. DANIEL GOES EAST.

Memphis, Tenn., May 1.—The three-year-old W. H. Daniel, Conville and Tivoli, the first named the property of E. S. Burke, Jr., of Cleveland, the last two owned by L. A. Cella, were shipped to Sheepshead Bay tonight to be placed in training by Henry McDaniel. Sickness detained the horses here, but all have recovered.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Robin Hood's victory yesterday was his fifth out of six starts this year. In the other race he was second.

The Butte meeting will clash with that of Seattle, but there are plenty of horses in California for both tracks.

Sam C. Hildreth was in Chicago yesterday on his way from California to New York. He has sent ten horses to the metropolitan tracks.

The eastern work watchers consider that the Ben Strome—Ban Amy colt, Amy, in Henry McDaniel's stable, is a colt of great speed and substance, and nearly ready to show it. He is owned by L. A. Cella.

Pella, the dam of The White Knight, sire of Edward Corrigan's McGee, died in England recently while foaling a colt to Desmond. The youngster, had he survived, would, of course, have been full brother to the Gold Vase and Newbury Autumn Cup winner.

The four-year-old Ontario, which won at Jamaica Monday, has recently been gelded. He has been schooled over the obstacles and is clever, and is to try the jumping game in public at Belmont Park.

Ontario is by Sempronius—Royal Approval, and is owned by G. Cornell.

The effect of Lord Durham's recent outburst against the abuse of the whip in England is to be seen in the current issue of the "Calendar," for attached to the heading of the Apprentices' Handicap, which was run on Wednesday during the Newmarket Craven meeting, is the note: "For this race apprentices will not be allowed to carry whips."

La Camargo, the mare that has often been called "the French Sceptre," which had such a distinguished career on the turf, recently gave birth to a colt foal by Flying Fox. She is now at M. Edmond Blanc's stud farm at Le Hardy, France. It is to be hoped that this fashionably bred youngster will turn out worthy of his distinguished parentage.

George Rose was in Chicago Tuesday on his way from California to New York. "Should we be compelled to abandon Ascot Park," said Mr. Rose, who is one of the chief stockholders in the Los Angeles Jockey Club, "we will build another track within easy access of the city. There is another course being laid out on property owned by 'Lucky' Baldwin, and it is expected that racing will be held there. When it is there will be no conflict, as dates will be divided."

Lord Penrhyn, who recently died in England, leaves a gap among the veterans of the British turf. One of the best thoroughbreds of late years was King's Messenger, by King Monmouth, which won the Great Metropolitan Stakes at Epsom, at two miles and a quarter, two years in succession, being beaten only a neck by Evasit in his third attempt, after losing ten lengths at the start. King's Messenger was bought by his lordship out of a selling race at Newmarket, as was also Planudes, the St. Simon stallion now owned by J. E. Madden and purchased at private sale by Ed Corrigan from Lord Penrhyn while campaigning his horses in England.

Buttling is in the Brooklyn with 107 pounds, and Jack McGinnis is publicly declaring in New York that the old gelding will win it. Buttling's Monday appearance was his first since as favorite he bowed a tendon in the race for the seventh Occidental Handicap at Brooklyn September 20, 1905, and finished fourth, behind Proper, First Mason and Bedouin. After the mishap Buttling was broken to harness and proved to be, as Trainer J. I. Smith put it, a "real good buggy horse." "But," added Smith, "we had another." Buttling's legs came out of Monday's race as sound as before it, and if they do not give way under racing in New York before the Brooklyn Handicap the gelding will have a great chance.

Winner—B. g. by Greenan—Singing Bird (trained by W. J. Young).
Went to post at 3:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving.
Billy Bowlegs got away well but was outrun for the first quarter, moved up on the turn into the home stretch and finishing gamely, won holding his own. Chesswardine ran on the outside all the way, finished well under punishment and just managed to get up in time to beat out Bucket Brigade. The latter ran and would have won with a better rider up. Toploty, a rapid breaker, showed much speed to the stretch, then tired. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—B. g. by Albert—Emily R. (trained by J. C. Milam).
Went to post at 4:23. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second easily; third driving.
Rabert rushed away from his opponents in the first quarter and opening a big lead was under restraint all through the last quarter and only cantering at the finish. Lafayette was hard ridden in an effort to get to the leader and was unable to improve his position, but ran a good race and was easily best of the others. Fantastic began slowly and trailed along in the rear for the first three furlongs, then came fast under punishment and outstayed Adesso. The latter ran well. King Leopold was outrun all the way and can do much better. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.
Scratched—(68430) Fosing, 108; 68425 Fortune, 112; 68478 High Run, 116.

Winner—Ch. g. by Rensselaer—Grenadine (trained by J. H. Baker).
Went to post at 4:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second easily; third driving.
Gauze found a track that just suited him, was outrun to the first turn but ran around the leaders and took command when straightened on the backstretch and was under restraint all through the last quarter. Request ran in close pursuit of the winner all the way but was unable to improve her position at any stage of the trip. Belden was saved for the first six furlongs and found no trouble in disposing of Fonsoluca when called on. St. Noel ran a very bad race in going favorable to him. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Scratched—68430 Borden, 99; (68455) Golden Mineral, 111; 68455 Hamillar, 101; 68455 Dick Redd, 107.
Overweights—Merry Pioneer, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Kingston—Belle of Maywood (trained by J. P. Mayberry).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same.
Robin Hood went to the front after taking the first few strides, easily held his advantage throughout and is in fine form. Chief Hayes ran a fine race for his first time out in a long time and was easily second best. Slickaway was overweighed in this company and could never get to a contending position but showed speed and finished gamely. Master Lester showed early speed but tired as if short and will do better. The winner was entered for $1,400; no bid.
Scratched—64058 Banner, 111; 68280 Fustian, 111; 68358 Nigger Mike, 98.

68488 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. (62124—1:002—2—97.) $700 added. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Selling. Net value to winner $670.

Winner—B. f. by Shapell—Snuffolk (trained by H. M. Davis).
Went to post at 2:56. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Sussex followed the leaders closely for a half mile, then moved up fast and just got up at the end of a game stretch drive. Helen B. made up much ground and finishing with a rush barely failed to get up and was unlucky in losing. Semprow set a fast pace and tired in the last sixteenth but finished resolutely. William H. Lyon showed a good turn of early speed but failed to stay. Gold Foil tired. The others were never conspicuous. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Scratched—Marbles, 99;
Incorrect weight in entries—The Thorn, 100.
Overweights—Semprow, 1 pound; Quick Dance, 1.

Winner—B. h. by Knight of the Thistle—Lady Alice (trained by H. C. Riddle).
Went to post at 3:22. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same.
Jacquin set the pace fast and ran undisturbed until near the finish, where Maxnar suddenly challenged, then held his own after a shaking up. Maxnar was always in closest pursuit, finished fast and gamely and is fast rounding into good form. Robador had no trouble in holding third place. Retort will do better presently. The winner was in for $1,200; no bid.
Scratched—68412 Shenandoah, 101; 68239 Taxer, 107; 68413 St. Valentine, 119; 68246 Tyrolian, 99; 68360 Lord Badge, 101; 68441 Ocean Spray, 101; 68258 Waterbearer, 103.

Winner—Ch. f. by Octagon—Woodlane (trained by H. C. Riddle).
Went to post at 3:50. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won cantering; second and third driving.
Woodlane went to the front quickly and showing superior speed drew into a long lead and won cantering. The Dane was off forwardly, showed much speed and held second place safe throughout. Transval, practically left, closed an immense gap and might have won with an equal start. Aunt Rose showed speed but tired at the end. Apple Toddy was also off poorly and could not make up his ground. The last three had scant chance from the start.
Scratched—(68417) Sepoy, 110; 68437 Alauda, 110; 68381 Hartford Boy, 110.
Overweights—Woodlane, 1 pound.

Winner—B. c. by Martagon—Ondulee (trained by H. C. Riddle).
Went to post at 4:18. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Marathon was slow as usual in the early stages but moved up on the far turn, found an opening next to the rail on the turn for home and came through with a great stretch rush to a well earned victory. Lord Stanhope showed sudden improvement, was always close to the leaders and took second in the last stride from

MARATHON 13-5, WON,

WHAT MY MESSAGE SAID:
 "This colt will win right back. He is my one best bet today. Martagon colts improve with racing. Plunge straight to win, as this baby can beat this kind of cattle doing anything." Was I right?

TUESDAY'S ONE BEST BET WAS SAVABLE 5-1 WON

WHAT MY MESSAGE SAID:
 "Bet the works on Savable today. The only way he can lose is to fall down. Throw out his last two races." I was next that Phil Chinn had this trick all framed up for a killing.
